

POLICY PRINCIPLES

I. DOE RECOGNIZES THE FEDERAL TRUST RELATIONSHIP AND WILL FULFILL ITS TRUST RESPONSIBILITIES TO AMERICAN INDIAN AND ALASKA NATIVE NATIONS.

The DOE will be diligent in fulfilling its federal trust obligations to American Indian and Alaska Native governments in policy implementation and program management activities. The DOE will pursue actions that uphold treaty and other federally recognized and reserved rights of the Indian nations and peoples. The Department recognizes that some Tribes have treaty-protected and other federally recognized rights to resources and resource interests located within reservation boundaries, aboriginal territories, and outside reservation and jurisdictional boundaries, and will, to the extent of its authority, protect and promote these treaty and trust resources and resource interests, and related concerns in these areas.

When internal policies, regulations, and statutes, or other barriers prohibit or hinder the DOE trust protection actions or participation in eligible program initiatives, the Secretary will direct the agency to seek corrective protection measures, and tribal government program inclusion.

The DOE is committed to protecting treaty compliance and trust interests of Indian nations during interactions with state and local governments and other stakeholders with regard to DOE actions impacting upon American Indian and Alaska Native governments and peoples. The Department will inform and educate state and local governmental entities and other stakeholders about the DOE's role and responsibilities regarding its trust relationship with Indian nations.

The DOE will seek to determine the impacts of Departmental-proposed legislation upon Indian nations, in extensive consultation and collaboration with tribes. The Secretary will implement this notice and consultation effort consistent with the intent and purpose of this Policy.

COMMITTS TO A GOVERNMENT TO GOVERNMENT RELATIONSHIP AND WILL INSTITUTE APPROPRIATE PROTOCOLS AND PROCEDURES FOR PROGRAM AND POLICY IMPLEMENTATION.

The DOE recognizes Tribal governments as sovereign entities with primary authority and responsibility for the protection of the health, safety and welfare of their citizens. The Department will recognize the right of each Indian nation to set its own priorities and goals in developing, protecting, and managing its natural and cultural resources. This recognition includes separate and distinct authorities that are independent of state governments.

The Department, in keeping with the principle of self-governance, recognizes American Indian and Alaska Native governments as necessary and appropriate non-Federal parties in the federal decision-making process regarding actions potentially impacting Indian country energy resources, environments, and the health and welfare of the citizens of Indian nations. The DOE will establish protocols for communication between tribal leaders, the Secretary, and federal officials. The DOE will ensure consistent application of program and policy implementation with Indian nations through periodic review, assessment, and collaboration with tribal representatives to audit protocol systems. Principles of consistent policy implementation will be tempered with consideration of the diverse cultures and ideals of the Indian nations.

III. THE DEPARTMENT WILL ESTABLISH MECHANISMS FOR OUTREACH, NOTICE, AND CONSULTATION, AND ENSURE INTEGRATION OF INDIAN NATIONS INTO DECISION-MAKING PROCESSES.

To ensure protection and exercise of tribal treaty and other federally recognized rights, the DOE will implement a proactive outreach effort of notice and consultation regarding current and proposed actions affecting tribes, including appropriate fiscal year budget matters. This effort will include timely notice to all potentially impacted Indian nations in the early planning stages of the decision-making process, including predraft consultation, in the development of regulatory policies on matters that significantly or uniquely affect their communities. As appropriate, the DOE will provide delivery of technical and financial assistance related to DOE-initiated regulatory policy, identifying programmatic impacts, and determining the significance of the impact. The DOE will continue to conduct a dialogue with Indian nations for long and short term decision-making when DOE actions impact Indian nations. The DOE will comply with the Consultation and Coordination With Indian Tribal Governments Executive Order 13084, May 14, 1998, and the Government to Government Relations With Native American Tribal Governments Executive Memorandum, April 29, 1994.

The DOE will implement permanent workshops and programs for field and headquarters staff on American Indian and Alaska Native cultural awareness and tribal governance.

Due to the nature of the trust responsibility to tribal governments, performance reviews of consultation activities will be conducted, in collaboration with tribal governments.
